

Mayor's Corner

I hope all who attended the Tigard Blast had a good time. My wife Carolyn and I enjoyed many of the activities and am looking forward to next year's functions.

The City of Tigard will soon be celebrating its 40th birthday. What has happened over the past 40 years in Tigard is amazing! Our population has grown; we are now the 11th largest city in the State. We used to be a bedroom community but now we are a destination community with more jobs than local workers.

We have a regional shopping center, Washington Square, and a fast-growing commercial area along 72nd Avenue. Unfortunately, the transportation system has not kept pace with the population growth but we will continue to work on this issue.

I invite all of you to celebrate our City's 40th year on September 11 from 4-8 p.m. at City Hall. We will have long-time residents discuss the changes our city has experienced as well as music and interactive displays. See the schedule on this page!

If you are not available to join the party, watch the activities on the Community Access Channel 22.

Jim Griffith, Mayor

Book Club reads The Hours

Tuesday, Sept. 11, 7 to 9 p.m., the Book Club meets in the Puett Room for a discussion of Michael Cunningham's Pulitzer Prize-winning novel. In The Hours, Cunningham draws on the life and work of Virginia Woolf to tell the story of a group of contemporary characters struggling with love and inheritance, hope and despair. Read the book and join the discussion. New members welcome. Please call Kate Miller at 503-684-6537, ext. 285 for more information.

New Tigard Library Construction Committee update!

Thank you to all the members of the community who stopped at the Library booth at the Tigard Blast. The Construction Committee members appreciated the input received about the proposed new library.

In August, the City Council, after reviewing the recommendation from the Committee, approved the construction of a model of the new library. Working with BML Architects, the Committee has begun to develop this model. The model is scheduled to be completed by mid-October.

For more information, contact Library Director Margaret Barnes at (margaret@ci.tigard.or.us) or 503-639-4171, ext. 263.

Register for Toddler Time

Parents, mark your calendars and note the CHANGE IN REGISTRATION PROCEDURE.

Four 3-week sessions of Toddler Time will be offered (starting Oct. 1, 4, 22, 25). You may register for ONE session only.

Monday, Sept. 10, registration begins when the library opens at 9:30 a.m. Toddler Time fills quickly, so come early if you can.

* In order to assure that every one has an equal chance to participate, ONLY ONE REGISTRATION PER ADULT/TODDLER WILL BE ACCEPTED AT A TIME. ****

For details, stop by the library and pick up a Toddler Time hand out or call Terri at 503-684-6537, ext. 271.

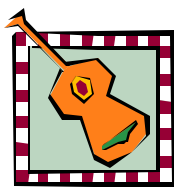

Help the Library! Discover good books!

The annual Friends of the Library Book Sale is on Friday, Sept. 14, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday, Sept. 15, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Town Hall. Thousands of books will be available for purchase at bargain prices. Shop early for the best selection. Or shop late on Saturday for books-by-the-bag.

We need Book Sale volunteers to help set up and sell books Thursday through Saturday, Sept. 13-15. For more information, call 503-684-6537, and ask for Trish Stormont, ext. 269 or Linda Parker, ext. 261.

Seven string guitar at the library

Jim Soloway, accomplished finger style guitarist, plays at the Tigard Library on Friday, Sept. 14, 6 to 8 p.m. He offers an eclectic and accessible blend of musical styles. Discover the remarkable tonal range of a seven-string guitar, and Soloway's many talents, including his smoky baritone voice, as he sings a variety of songs from "The Great American Songbook."

This event, sponsored by the Friends of the Library, is part of an ongoing celebration of extended library hours on Friday evenings. Check out the new closing time, 9 p.m., as well as a book, CD or DVD to take home.

Take a pioneer "Weed Walk" along Fanno Creek

Erica Calkins, a historian of pioneer plant use and author of Hatchet, Hands and Hoe will lead a "Weed Walk" along Fanno Creek on Saturday, Sept. 15, from 10:30 a.m. to noon. Meet at the shed-roofed shelter in the park behind the library. Ms. Calkins will identify the plants, their origins, and talk about their uses. She will also demonstrate some early children's games. All ages welcome. Space is limited, so call 503-684-6537, ext. 276 to reserve a spot.

This program is made possible by a grant from Live @ your library, an initiative of the American Library Association with major support from the National Endowment for the Arts, Wallace-Reader's Digest Funds, and the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation.

Naturopathic health and food allergies

Join Dr. Eileen Walsh for a lecture on how to treat food allergies using naturopathic techniques. Tuesday, Sept. 18, 7 to 8 p.m. in the Puett Room. Call 503-684-6537, ext. 276 to reserve a seat.

Kick off the Adult Reading Program!

Monday, Sept. 24, 7 to 9 p.m. in the Puett Room

The 7th Annual Adult Reading Program, "Turning Pages... Falling Leaves," runs Sept. 24 through Nov. 4.

Join us for an evening of short book reviews presented by library staff and be among the first to register for the program.

Need incentive? The Adult Reading Program is a six-week reading event that's all about motivating you to read! Read or listen to books and qualify for fabulous prizes including a Grand Prize!

You must register to win, so join us for details, instructions and inspiration!

Personal and professional growth in the changing work environment

Tigard Public Library and Portland Community College are pleased to offer a free lecture series on achieving personal and professional satisfaction in your work-environment.

Experts in the field of communication will present lectures on various topics beginning Tuesday, Sept. 25 and continuing Tuesdays through Oct. 30, 7 to 8 p.m. in the Puett Room.

On Tuesday, Sept. 25, join Joseph E. Kurtright for "Inner Strength During Outer Conflict."

This lecture will teach you how to focus energy and attention productively in your personal life and at work.

Other topics in the series include: Addressing Frustration in Your Life, Making Work Fun, Handling Criticism Effectively, Communication Between Men and Women in the Workplace, and Surviving in Our Fast-Paced World.

You may attend an individual lecture or the series. To reserve a space, call 503-684-6537, ext. 276.

Cook Park expansion is underway

On June 5 the Lo cal Con tract Re-view Board awarded the con tract for con struc tion of Cook Park Mas-ter Plan Ex pan sion Phase I to North-west Earthmovers, Inc. The con tract in cludes the fol low ing:

- Construction of the 85th Avenue emergency access road, connecting 85th Avenue to the new parking lot.
- Construction of infrastructure, including sanitary sewer, storm sewer, water lines, power and telephone cable.
- Creation of a butterfly meadow which includes landscaping and irrigation, funded by the Tupling donation.
- Construction of parking lot improvements which will include irrigation and landscaping.
- Construction of a wetland viewing gazebo.

Due to a cost sav ings, the City Coun cil was able to add sports field grad ing to the list of cur rent pro-jects. Adding the field grad ing in this phase of the ex pan sion will save the city $16,000 in soil haul ing fees.

With the as sis tance of John An der-son, a rep re sen ta tive of Atfalati Rec-reation Dis trict, city staff made a pre sen ta tion to the state grant com-mit tee on June 22. As a re sult of the pre sen ta tion, the city ob tained a grant for $250,000 from the State Parks and Rec reation Program. This grant will be used to sup port the ex-pan sion of the park.

Citizen Involvement Team (CIT) facilitators needed

Community members are needed to facilitate Citizen Involvement Team (CIT) meetings. CIT meetings are grass roots forums for residents, and business and property owners to identify community issues, to learn how to access the decision-making process and to communicate concerns.

Facilitators are volunteers who oversee the meetings, keep order, set time limits and make sure every one has an opportunity to express their opinion.

Facilitators must be able to remain impartial throughout the meeting. Training for Facilitators will be conducted in November.

If you would like to learn more about becoming a Facilitator, please contact Volunteer Coordinator Susan Koepping at (susank@ci.tigard.or.us) or 503-639-4171, ext. 460.

Tigard Tree Board members sought

Tree Board members are being sought. The mission of the Tree Board is to develop and administer a comprehensive community tree management program to maintain, remove, replace and protect trees on public property. Board members are appointed by the City Council.

If you have an interest in and knowledge of trees and would like to be considered for a position on the Tree Board, please complete a Citizen Interest Application. Forms are available in the lobby of City Hall and on the City's website (www.ci.tigard.or.us) at the "volunteer opportunities" page.

Applications for the Tree Board will be accepted through September 28. If you have questions, please contact Susan Koepping at (susank@ci.tigard.or.us) or call 503-639-4171, ext. 460. Urban Forester Matt Stine is also available to answer questions at (mstine@ci.tigard.or.us) or call 503-639-4171, ext. 423.

Washington Square Regional Center Plan update

At its last meeting in July the 25-member Washington Square Task Force completed the implementation phase of the Washington Square Center Plan. In February 2000 the Tigard City Council approved the Plan, however, Council delayed enactment of the plan until a number of transportation, natural resource, storm water, and parks and open space issues were addressed.

The Task Force along with city staff, consultants and its four technical advisory subcommittees examined and worked on these issues over the past eight months. Through this effort, the Plan was refined and strategies were identified to help make the Plan's goals a reality. On July 25 the Task Force endorsed a Summary Report containing findings and recommendations for funding options and actions needed.

The Task Force recommended that the cities of Tigard and Beaverton, and Washington County take immediate steps to implement the Washington Square Regional Plan and carry out the Report's recommendations.

The Report was reviewed by the Tigard City Council and Planning Commission at a joint work session on August 21, 2001. Adoption hearings will take place in late fall. The city is grateful for the countless hours the Task Force and Technical Advisory Subcommittee members contributed to this important project.

For more information, contact Associate Planner Julia Hajduk at (julia@ci.tigard.or.us) or 503-639-4171, ext. 336. The report is also available on the city's website at www.ci.tigard.or.us.

Bull Mountain annexation study underway

In March of this year, the Tigard City Council decided to investigate the possibility of annexing a portion of the Bull Mountain area. A preliminary study is being conducted to assess the value and feasibility of an annexation for both the city and Bull Mountain residents. The study will be completed in late September.

The final study report will contain information for this area of Bull Mountain relating to:

- ▼ Projected growth, development trends and demographics
- ▼ Data on existing service levels and the cost of providing services, including law enforcement, fire/emergency response, parks, sewer, water, planning, street improvements and street maintenance
- ▼ Costs and benefits for both the residents and the City
- ▼ Possible methods of annexation

Citizen involvement is an important component in this process. In order to begin a dialogue with Bull Mountain residents, a focus group meeting was held on July 26 at Deer Creek Elementary School. Approximately 75 residents attended the meeting and discussed issues they would like to have addressed by the study.

If you have any questions or concerns about the Bull Mountain annexation study, contact Long Range Planning Manager Barbara Shields at (barbaras@ci.tigard.or.us) or 503-639-4171, ext. 388.

Native plants and water conservation

Go indigenous!

The Pacific Northwest has many spectacular native plants. Native plants thrive in local climate and soil conditions. Since these plants have adapted to the area they need very little water. In addition, they are often more resistant to local pests and diseases and also attract wild life such as butterflies and birds.

When you add native plants to your landscape, it is important to plan ahead. Where are the shady or sunny areas of your landscape? Does the area have poor drainage or is it dry? Do you want a formal, informal, or a "natural" landscape?

If a "natural" landscape fits your needs and you want to preserve the microhabitats of your site, you may need little to no soil improvements. Some plants require more soil preparation; advance ground work may be beneficial. Prepare the planting beds several months in advance by tilling and adding 4-6 inches of compost.

Like most landscapes, native plants need to be watered regularly for the first year or two after planting. Once established, native landscapes only need to be watered during long dry spells.

Here is a sample list of a few native plants:

- à Wild ginger
- à Seaside fleabane daisy
- à White fawn lily
- à Oregon iris
- à Wild blue flax

City Book Club!

The City Book Discussion Group will meet Wednesday, September 5, 2001, at 7 p.m. at the Tigard Senior Center on the main floor. The book to be discussed will be Wild Life by Molly Glass. The meeting will also include planning for the coming year.

- à Early blue violet
- à Red alder
- à Orange honeysuckle
- à Ocean spray
- à Mountain huckleberry

To learn more about this subject, join the City of Tigard and the Regional Water Providers Consortium at the last landscape workshop of the year. The workshop is set for September 15 at 11 a.m. at Tualatin River Nursery, 65 Dolan Street West Linn, 503-650-8511.

Tigard water customers conserve!

Many thanks to the Tigard water customers who have used even/odd watering this summer. Their actions have made a difference to the system and because of their participation we have successfully avoided any water supply problems!

Until winter begins, we need everyone to continue to voluntarily curb the "summer peak." Even/odd watering means if your home address ends in an odd number, only water your lawn and garden on odd days of the month, such as September 1, 3, 5... If your home address ends in an even number, water your lawn and garden on even days of the month, such as September 2, 4, 6...

For more information on water conservation contact Sara Danz at (sara@ci.tigard.or.us) or 503-639-4171, ext. 346.

Anyone interested in joining our group is welcome. For more information, please phone Dorothy Fagenstrom at 503-369-4051.

New utility billing drop box

Utility billing drop boxes are now available at the following locations:

- City Hall of King City Hall, 15300 SW 116th Avenue (Deposit payments of City of Tigard water/storm/sewer utility bills only.)
- Postal Annex, 15532 SW Pacific Highway (Deposit all utility payments.)

City staff will pick up payments to post to individual accounts every Wednesday (except holidays).

If you have any questions, please contact Finance Manager Tom Imdieke at (tomi@ci.tigard.or.us) or call 503-639-4171, ext. 326.

Employees of the Month!

Congratulations to Duane Roberts and John Roy, Employees of the Month for August 2001!

John started working with the City in 1985 and is the Property Manager in the Public Works Department. Duane also started with the City in 1985 and is an Associate Planner in the Community Development Department.

John and Duane are the key staff members who worked with a consultant on the Cook Park long-range plan. Duane developed a grant application recently approved for Cook Park development by the State of Oregon for $250,000 enabling the City to do additional park improvements.

John and Duane worked with John Anderson, a citizen representative for the youth leagues, to present the grant request. This is a good example of how the City and citizens worked together effectively!

Congratulations to both John and Duane for a great job!
